ACCCEPT, Gracious Lord, our repeated Thanks for thy repeated Mercies to these Kingdoms in the Prosecution of the present just War. Thou hast blessed us with Safety and uncommon Plenty at Home, and protected our Settlements Abroad from formidable Assaults. Thou hast delivered into our Hands a considerable Part of the Naval Force, With Which our haughty Adversaries threatened to invade us; of the Possessions, by Which they enriched themselves, and the strong Holds, from Whence they annoyed and distressed our Fellow-Subjects. The most distant Regions from us and from each other have been Wit-nest:s of thy Interposition in our Favour: And these great Advantages, through the Kindness of thy Providence, We have obtained With small Suffering and Loss.

 Dispose all our Hearts to receive them With sincere Gratitude; and enjoy them in cheerful Obedience to Thee, the Author of all Good. Grant, We beseech thee, proportion-able Success to our Altes, and give them Rest from Perils and Calamities. May our Neighbouring Enemies perceive, that Thou fightest against them, and submit to equitable Terms of Peace. May the re-motest Nations, With Whom We have Concerns, acknowledge that our God ruleth over all. And may We behave towards them With such Justice, Humanity and Prudence, and live in their Sight so righteously, soberly, and godly, that they may honour, instead of blaspheming, the Worthy Name Whereby We are called, and the heathen become the Inheritance, and the utmost parts of the Earth the possession of thy beloved Son: To Whom, With Thee, O Father, and the holy Ghost, be all Glory and Praise, now and for ever. Amen.
